To Valley Water Board Members,

The Keep Coyote Creek Beautiful Board of Directors supports Barbara Keegan as the next Chair of the Valley Water Board.

Serving as the current Vice Chair, Director Keegan provides critical leadership continuity that the Board requires. Her qualifications for Board Chair, especially her technical experience for many of the large and complex engineering projects. She has demonstrated her commitment to actively listen to and participate in community input to engage the public effectively. Her collaborative approach as a partner within Valley Water and other partner organizations emphasizes her duty to build consensus with agencies and community organizations. And, she practices the mission of Valley Water to act for clean water, a healthy environment, and flood protection.

We ask that you elect Barbara Keegan as the next Chair at the upcoming meeting.

Sincerely,

Deb Kramer

Executive Director on behalf of the

Keep Coyote Creek Beautiful Board of Directors
