3. Summary of Work

A. Project Description. The project scope includes the following:

The objective of the Project is to install tidal riverine/tidal marsh habitat enhancement and mitigation plantings, and maintain those plantings during the identified establishment period. The Project includes, but is not limited to, the following major components:

Planting (anticipated April-May 2019):

1. Care for and maintain approximately 19,500 container plants delivered to the Project by plant nurseries.
2. Prepare planting holes, plant, secure, and backfill approximately 19,500 treeband 2 to treeband 4 native high marsh and high marsh transition container plants in the newly created and tidally inundated marshplain of the creek.
3. Hand water each planting using water from a contractor-supplied watertruck.
4. Comply with best management practices (BMPs) to prevent and reduce the introduction and spread of plant pathogens during plant storage, planting, and watering.
5. Maintain access to the Bay Trail during all planting-related work.
6. Comply with endangered species permits during all planting-related work.

Maintenance (anticipated May 2019-June 2021):

1. Supply a water truck and irrigate the plantings as needed.
2. Mow approximately 343,000 square feet (approximately eight acres) of inboard and outboard levee slopes seasonally, and at least annually.
3. Control noxious weeds in and around the marshplain by hand and/or herbicide.
4. Comply with BMPs to prevent and reduce the introduction and spread of plant pathogens during maintenance.
5. Maintain access to the Bay Trail during all plant maintenance-related work.
6. Comply with endangered species permits during all plant maintenance-related work.

The District anticipates awarding a contract for planting, and up to two years of plant maintenance. The plant maintenance activities for year two, if awarded, will be as Additive Bid Items. San Francisquito Creek and its marshplain will be free-flowing and subject to the ebb and flow of tides during the entire contract period, including during planting. As such, vehicle access is prohibited on the marsh plain and pedestrian access may be limited during high flow and/or high tide periods. Access to the Bay Trail, which includes the Project levee roads, must remain open during the entire contract period. As such, Project levee roads may not be closed in their entirety to complete the work. Safety and compliance with endangered species permits will influence and may limit the schedule of planting, maintenance work, biological surveys, and monitoring required for some work activities.
