

Attachment 2.

Table A1. Member Capacity Request for Los Vaqueros Storage and Transfer-Bethany Pipeline Conveyance.

| Members  | Storage Requests (TAF) | Transfer-Bethany Pipeline (TBP) Capacity Requests (%) |
|--|------------------------|---|
| Alameda County Water District                          | 10                     | TBD   |
| Zone 7 Water Agency                                    | 10                     | TBD   |
| Valley Water   | 50                     | TBD   |
| East Bay Municipal Utility District <sup>1</sup>       | 0                      | 0%  |
| San Francisco Public Utilities Commission <sup>2</sup> | 20                     | TBD   |
| Grasslands Water District                              | 10                     | TBD   |
| SLDMWA ( represents agencies below )            | 15                     | TBD   |
| Byron-Bethany Water District                    | 10                     | TBD   |
| City of Tracy                                   | 5                      | TBD   |
| Del Puerto Water District                       | -                      | TBD   |
| Panoche Water District                          | -                      | TBD   |
| Westlands Water District                        | -                      | TBD   |
| Total Requests                                  | 115             | -   |
| Available Capacity                              | 115             | 300 cfs  |

<sup>1</sup> East Bay Municipal Utility District reduced its storage participant request from 30 TAF to 0 TAF in August 2024.

<sup>2</sup> San Francisco Public Utilities Commission reduced its storage participation request from 40 TAF to 20 TAF in May 2024.

This page intentionally left blank.