The District shall not use a temporary promotion as means of filling a position that requires a regular full-time employee.

Section 6. Out-of-Class Assignment

- A. When an Unclassified manager will be absent for an extended period of time, he/she has the discretion to either have another manager cover the position or make an out-of-class assignment.

- B. PMA recognizes the right of the District to establish new job classes and job descriptions and to amend existing class specifications and job descriptions to reflect changes in assigned duties and responsibilities. In the event a substantial change is made in the specification or job description of a class represented by PMA, the District will provide PMA with notice of such changes and the salary for the class. PMA will have fifteen (15) working days from such notice to request a meeting to consult with the District on said changes. If requested by PMA, the parties shall meet and confer on the salary for the class as soon as practicable after the request is received. Establishment of the salary is not subject to the grievance process as contained in this contract.
- C. At the request of the District, the parties agree to meet and confer over District proposed changes to this section.

Section 2. Maintenance of the Classification Process

- A. Desk audits may be required as a result of business need changes or as a result of a reassignment. In these cases, management may initiate a desk audit of the change in business or reassignment conditions.
- B. Every effort should be made by the manager to review the body of work before assigning the work to staff. Management will work with the Classification Unit to determine whether the body of work will require a higher or different class.
- C. If the body of work is determined to be a higher or different class through the body of work review, the manager can determine staffing mechanisms (e.g., out-of-class, remove the duties or unmet needs allocation, etc.).

ARTICLE 13. DISCIPLINE PROCESS

The following procedure is established as a result of a mutual interest on the part of the District and the PMA to resolve disciplinary matters. The District will issue no discipline without just cause.

Section 1. Right to Representation

If a situation arises where an employee will be formally disciplined by an applicable manager the employee will be notified that he/she has the right to have PMA representation. Any employee who reasonably believes that a meeting with their manager may result in disciplinary action against them may request to have a representative in the meeting. If a representative is not available at the time of the meeting, the applicable manager will arrange an alternative meeting as soon as possible, but at least within (5) five working days. It is the employee and/or PMA's responsibility to arrange for representation within the five (5) working day requirement.

Section 2. Examples of Employee Misconduct

Examples of employee misconduct include, but are not limited to: chronic absenteeism, incompetence, failure to follow work rules, insubordination, misstatement of facts on an application or other personnel documents, falsification of work or time records, absence without authorized leave and without just cause.

Section 3. Progressive Discipline

The District shall follow the principles of progressive discipline as appropriate.

Section 4. Disciplinary Actions

Disciplinary actions should be designed to fit the nature of the issue and may include counseling, oral and written reprimands, suspension, demotion, discharge, or other appropriate action. The particular action imposed shall depend on the severity of the misconduct and the particular factual circumstances involved.

Section 5. Pre-Disciplinary Procedure:

- A. An employee who will be investigated for possible misconduct by the Labor Relations Unit shall be notified by management within fifteen (15) working days of the start of the formal disciplinary investigation by the Labor Relations Unit. Management shall make every effort to complete the investigation within sixty (60) working days. If the investigation will take longer to complete, management shall update the employee and PMA every thirty (30) calendar days until the investigation is completed. The time limits identified in this section are not grievable.
- B. Following the completion of the employer's formal disciplinary investigation, where formal discipline (demotion, suspension or termination) is being recommended, the appropriate authority shall prepare a Written Notice of Recommended Disciplinary Action to be served on the employee in person or by registered mail. A copy will be sent to PMA and Labor Relations Unit. No Written Notice of Recommended Disciplinary Action shall be required for informal discipline (counseling, oral and written reprimands).

- C. For matters of formal discipline (demotion, suspension, or termination), the appropriate level of authority for preparing such recommended discipline shall be the Appointing Authority or Unclassified designee in consultation with the Labor Relations Unit. For all informal disciplinary matters (counseling, oral and written reprimands), the appropriate level of authority for preparing such recommended discipline shall be the applicable manager in consultation with the Labor Relations Unit.
- D. The Written Notice of Recommended Disciplinary Action shall state the specific grounds and facts upon which the action is based and will be provided to the employee, PMA and the Labor Relations Unit.
- E. Copies of any known materials, reports, or other documents upon which the intended action is based shall be served with the Written Notice of Recommended Disciplinary Action to the employee, and copies shall be provided to PMA and the Labor Relations Unit.
- F. Employee shall be accorded the right to respond in writing to the Written Notice of Recommended Disciplinary Action, and any such written response shall be served by the employee within fifteen (15) working days from the District's service of the Written Notice of Recommended Disciplinary Action. A copy of any such written response will be provided to the PMA.
- G. For matters of formal discipline (suspension, demotion, termination), within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the Written Notice of Recommended Disciplinary Action, the employee shall be accorded the right to request a Skelly Hearing with the Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority shall designate a Skelly Hearing Officer who has the authority to recommend to uphold, modify, or revoke the recommended disciplinary action. A copy of the Skelly Hearing notice will be provided to the PMA and the Labor Relations Unit. The Skelly Hearing will be scheduled and held as soon as practicable after receipt of the request.
- H. Following the Skelly Hearing, the appropriate Appointing Authority shall issue the Notice of Final Disciplinary Action, including the effective date of any discipline to be imposed. The notice is to include the Hearing Officer decision as an attachment.
- I. At any time in the discipline process, the failure of PMA to adhere to the time limits set forth in the MOU shall cause forfeiture for their case.
- J. Adverse entries in the employee's record more than three (3) years old shall not be admitted into evidence or considered to support the charges at any level of the grievance or arbitration procedures. The three (3) year limitation will not apply to previous disciplinary actions related to egregious conduct such as harassment (including sexual harassment), retaliation, potential criminal activity, violence, willful destruction of property, or potential injury to the employee or others.

Section 6. Counseling

- A. Unclassified managers shall advise an employee as early as possible when it is determined that their performance or conduct is approaching an unacceptable level.
- B. Counseling should be done by the employee's Unclassified manager. The counseling session should be an open, two-way conversation, keeping in mind that the main objective is to improve the employee's performance and/or conduct.
- C. During these sessions, a problem solving discussion should be held between the employee and the Unclassified manager with the employee being given an opportunity to state any circumstances which have affected their performance record. While such circumstances may not excuse the performance problems, the parties may find ways to eliminate them in the future.
- D. Specific details and examples should be developed for an action plan. Follow-up and follow-through timelines should also be established if applicable.
- E. The Unclassified manager must establish and maintain appropriate documentation.

Section 7. Oral Reprimand

- A. The Unclassified manager should advise the employee what specific behavior is unacceptable, what is expected and what will happen if improvement does not occur or if conduct continues. At this stage the employee is being put on notice that a failure to correct the problem will lead to further progressive disciplinary action. The Unclassified manager must fully document the oral reprimand including the matter discussed and any agreed upon remedial measures.
- B. Specific details and examples should be developed for an action plan and follow-up and follow-through timelines should be established if applicable.
- C. The Unclassified manager must establish and maintain appropriate documentation.

Section 8. Written Reprimand

- A. If the employee has previously been counseled or orally reprimanded, or if the situation warrants this as a first level discipline, a written reprimand must be completed.
- B. The written reprimand should refer to any previous counseling and/or oral reprimand and should include a statement that will put the employee on notice that a failure to correct the problem will lead to further progressive disciplinary action. A copy of the written reprimand will be given to the employee and a copy will be placed in the employee's personnel file. A copy will also be provided to PMA and the Labor Relations Unit.
- C. The written reprimand will include a statement indicating that the employee has received a copy and that the employee has the right to attach a written response. The written response must be submitted to the Labor Relations office within fifteen (15) working days from receipt of the written reprimand. The employee may also file an appeal of a written reprimand with their next level Unclassified manager. The appeal must be submitted within fifteen (15) working days from receipt of the written reprimand.

Section 9. Administrative Leave

- A. Notification—If the District elects to place an employee on Paid Administrative Leave, the District shall notify both the employee and the PMA. Paid Administrative Leave shall normally not exceed forty-five (45) working days. The notification shall include:

 2. The steps to be taken during the time the employee is on Paid Administrative Leave.
- B. Leave Extension—If Paid Administrative Leave needs to be extended beyond forty-five (45) working days, the District shall notify the employee and PMA in writing of the reasons for the change.
- C. Within fifteen (15) working days after commencement of Paid Administrative Leave, both the employee and PMA will be notified in writing of the status of the case.

Section 10. Compulsory Leave

Criminal Charges: The District may require an employee who has been charged in a court of competent jurisdiction with a commission of a felony, or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, provided the crime as charged is related to the employee's employment status, to take a leave of absence without pay pending termination by a way of a plea, finding or verdict at the trial court level as to the guilt or innocence of such employee. Upon a finding of not guilty, the employee may be reinstated to the regularly assigned position with return of all benefits, including salary, that were due for the period of such leave; subject, however, to appropriate disciplinary action if warranted. Any disciplinary action shall be imposed effective as of the commencement date of such leave. If the determination is one of guilt, the District may take appropriate disciplinary action effective as of the commencement date of such leave.

Section 11. Arbitration

- A. Appeal of Final Disciplinary Action resulting in suspension, demotion, or discharge shall be through arbitration, but only with concurrence of the PMA.
- B. For matters of arbitration, the District and PMA agree to select an arbitrator from the following list:

- D. It is recommended that the arbitrator render their decision within sixty (60) working days of the conclusion of the aforementioned hearing. The decision shall be in writing, and copies shall be directed to the Deputy of Human Resources or designee, PMA and the Labor Relations Unit.
- E. The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the District and PMA, it being understood and agreed that all other expenses including, but not limited to, fees for non-District employee witnesses, transcripts, and similar costs incurred by the parties during the arbitration, will be the responsibility of the individual party involved.
- F. The arbitration shall be informal and the rules of evidence prescribed for duly constituted courts shall not apply.
- G. Subject to the above, hearings shall be conducted in accordance with any additional rules and procedures adopted or specified by the arbitrator, unless the parties hereto mutually agree to other rules or procedures for the conduct of such hearings.
- H. The decision of the arbitrator may sustain, modify or revoke the recommended disciplinary action and shall be final and binding on the parties.

An employee may request representation by the PMA at any stage of the grievance procedure. At any point in the grievance process the parties may agree to extend the timelines. The party's request for an extension must be in writing and will not be unreasonably denied by either party.

Section 1. Grievance Defined

Matters excluded from the grievance process include, counseling, oral and written reprimands, performance improvement plans, evaluation process, release of an employee during their initial probationary period, hiring decisions, and items requiring capital expenditure. Written reprimands and performance evaluations are appealable to the next higher level of supervision. An employee is entitled to representation during the grievance process. An employee shall have the right to represent their own grievance or do so through a PMA representative. If an employee chooses to take the grievance on their own, it shall be at the employee's expense.

Section 2. Informal Grievance Procedure

An employee is encouraged to act promptly to attempt to resolve disputes with their manager through an informal procedure. A meeting between the manager and the employee should take place whenever requested by either party to assist to clarify or resolve the grievance. The employee may be accompanied by his/her PMA representative at the informal meeting. Any resolution reached at the informal step must be in accordance with the provisions of this MOU, or other rule or ordinance and shall not set precedent.

3. All steps of the grievance procedure shall be utilized unless the parties mutually agree to waive one or more steps. If the employee or PMA fail to process a grievance within the specified time limits, the grievance shall be deemed concluded on the basis of the last decision reached. If the District fails to respond within the specified time limits, the grievant may appeal to the next step, within the specified time limits. Time limits in this article may be extended if mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing.
- B. Step 2. Within fifteen (15) working days of the Step 1 decision and with concurrence of the PMA, the formal grievance procedure may be submitted to the Chief Operating Officer of Administrative Services (COOAS).

The grievant may attend the entire hearing during their regular working hours without loss of compensation. In the event of a grievance involving a group of employees, one (1) representative designated by PMA shall be authorized to attend the entire hearing without loss of compensation. Witnesses called by either party will be authorized to attend the hearing when active participation is required without loss of compensation. Any disputes concerning the definition of the grievance (Section 1) shall be resolved by the arbitrator.

Section 5. Duty of Arbitrator

Except when an agreed statement of facts is submitted by the parties, it shall be the duty of the arbitrator to hear and consider evidence submitted by the parties and thereafter make written findings of fact and a disposition of the grievance which shall be binding. The decision of the arbitrator shall not add to, subtract from, or otherwise modify the terms and conditions of this MOU.

ARTICLE 15. LAYOFF

A laid off employee who accepts an offer of reinstatement must report within fourteen (14) calendar days, following the date of their acceptance. An employee who is reinstated shall maintain all seniority and benefit rights.

For example, if a regular employee has five (5) years and six (6) months of seniority, that regular employee would receive severance compensation equal to 27.5 workdays of pay (i.e., 25 workdays for the full 5 years of seniority, and 2.5 workdays for the 6 full months of seniority).
- F. Each workday of severance pay is equal to the regular employee's daily base pay at the time of layoff.

- A. The parties have established various collaborative committees and councils. PMA representation will continue including, but not limited to, the following:
1. Labor Management Committee (LMC): The Committee shall meet at least quarterly, or upon the written request of either party, for the purpose of discussing matters of mutual concern. Grievances and adverse actions shall not be discussed at such meetings. - B. Employees intending to engage in outside employment must submit a written notification to their manager and Appointing Authority, stating the type of employment and the amount of time that will be spent on such employment. If employment continues, the notification must be resubmitted annually, by the anniversary date of the initial notification for review.
