Proposition 68 – SB 5 (De Leon) California Drought, Water, Parks, Climate, Coastal Protection, and Outdoor Access For All Act of 2018.

Chapter 2. Investments in Environmental and Social Equity Enhancing California's Disadvantaged Communities.

$750 million for parks and recreation in disadvantaged communities.

Chapter 3. Investments in Protecting, Enhancing, and Accessing California's Local and Regional Outdoor Spaces.

- $200 million for park rehabilitation, creation and improvement, based on population.
- $15 million for parks and recreation in urbanized counties with a population of 200.000 or less.
- $30 million for parks and recreation centers serving youth and communities of color. Of this amount, $5 million would be available for projects in the state's park system.
- $40 million for local agencies that have obtained voter approval for local park revenue measures between November 1, 2012, and November 30, 2018.

Chapter 4. State Parks, Natural and Cultural Legacy.

$218 million for state parks and improving access to parks.

Chapter 5. Trails and Greenway Investment.

- $30 million for the alignment, development and improvement of non-motorized trails.
- 25 percent of the funds would be allocated for innovative transportation projects that provide new or expanded outdoor experiences to disadvantaged youth.

Chapter 6. Rural Recreation, Tourism, and Economic Enrichment Investment.

 $25 million for local agencies eligible for grants under the Roberti-Z'berg-Harris Urban Open-Space and Recreation Program Act.

Chapter 7. California River Recreation, Creek, and Waterway Improvements Program.

$162 million for river parkways and urban streams.

 These funds would be available to specified conservancies, with $3 million made available for projects supporting the preservation of the Los Gatos Creek and Guadalupe River watersheds.

Chapter 8. State Conservancy, Wildlife Conservation Board, and Authority Funding.

- $767 million for specified conservancies, and wildlife, and environmental, conservation programs.
 - $20 million would be available for the State Coastal Conservancy for purposes of San Francisco Bay restoration in accordance with the San Francisco Bay Restoration Authority Act.
 - $52 million for the implementation of Natural Community Conservation Plans.

Chapter 9. Ocean, Bay, and Coastal Protection.

- $175 million for ocean and coastal protection.
 - $85 million to the State Coastal Conservancy for the protection of beaches, bays, wetlands, and coastal watershed resources. Of this amount 25 percent, would be available for the San Francisco Bay Area Conservancy Program.
 - $20 million to the State Coastal Conservancy for the protection, restoration, and improvement of coastal watersheds, including projects that improve water quality and supply.

Chapter 10. Climate Preparedness, Habitat Resiliency, Resource Enhancement, and Innovation.

- $443 million to adapt to the unavoidable impacts of climate change, improve and protect coastal and rural economies, agricultural viability, wildlife corridors, or habitat, develop future recreational opportunities, or enhance drought tolerance, landscape resilience, and water retention.
 - $18 million for purchase of water rights, water transfers, that provide water for salmon and steelhead.
 - o $30 million for wildlife corridors, open space, and Pacific Flyway habitat.
 - $30 million for fish and wildlife in streams, rivers, refuges, wetlands, and estuaries, including purchase of water rights, water transfers, to benefit fish.
 - $40 million for coastal communities for adaption to climate change including sea level rise with $14 million earmarked for San Francisco Bay Area Conservancy Program.
 - $40 million for California Conservation Corp projects.

Chapter 11. Clean Drinking Water and Drought Preparedness.

• $250 million for clean drinking water projects administered through the programs created to distribute Proposition 1 (November 2014) dollars.

Chapter 11.1 Groundwater Sustainability.

• $80 million for groundwater cleanup projects that serve as a source of drinking water.

Chapter 11.5. Flood Protection and Repair.

- $550 million for flood protection and repair.
 - $350 million for Central Valley multi-benefit flood protection with $50 million earmarked for Delta levee repair.
 - $100 million for statewide storm water, mudslide, and flash flood projects with 25 percent local match required.
 - $100 million for statewide urban multi-benefit flood control projects with 25 percent local match required.

Chapter 11.6 Regional Sustainability for Drought and Groundwater, and Water Recycling.

- $290 million for groundwater recharge with surface water, stormwater, recycled water, and other conjunctive use projects, and projects to prevent or clean up contamination of groundwater that serves as a source of drinking water.
 - o $50 million would be available for groundwater sustainability planning.
- $100 million for water recycling.
 - $20 million would be available for agricultural operations to implement water saving irrigation systems.

THIS PAGE INTENTIONALLY LEFT BLANK